

TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, teachers play a crucial role in shaping our children into the people they will become, supporting them through their youth and teaching lessons that have an impact on students they will carry through life; and

WHEREAS, teachers dedicate their lives to students and families by working long hours preparing lessons, correcting papers, and planning for growth opportunities; and

WHEREAS, in the City of Liberty alone, there are approximately 200 teachers employed by the Pickens County School District and many homeschooling and abroad teachers.

WHEREAS, it is an honor to recognize teachers and to observe their dedication.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Erica Romo Woods, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Liberty, South Carolina, hereby proclaim May 8 through May 12, 2023, as Teacher Appreciation Week and ask our citizens to join in this special observance.
