Proclamation

Building Safety Month - May 2024

Whereas the City of Liberty, South Carolina, is committed to recognizing that our growth and strength depend on the safety and essential role our homes, buildings, and infrastructure play, both in everyday life and when disasters strike, and;

Whereas our confidence in the resilience of these buildings that make up our community is achieved through the devotion of vigilant guardians-building safety and fire prevention officials, architects, engineers, builders, tradespeople, design professionals, laborers, plumbers and others in the construction industry who work year-round to ensure the safe construction of buildings, and;

Whereas these guardians are dedicated members of the International Code Council, a nonprofit that brings together local, state, territorial, tribal and federal officials who are experts in the built environment to create and implement the highest-quality codes to protect us in the buildings where we live, learn, work and play, and;

Whereas these modern building codes include safeguards to protect the public from hazards such as hurricanes, snowstorms, tornadoes, wildland fires, floods and earthquakes, and;

Whereas Building Safety Month is sponsored by the International Code Council to remind the public about the critical role of our communities' largely unknown protectors of public safety-our local code officials who assure us of safe, sustainable and affordable buildings that are essential to our prosperity, and;

Whereas "Mission Possible," the theme for Building Safety Month 2024, encourages us all to raise awareness about building safety on a personal, local and global scale, and;

Whereas each year, in observance of Building Safety Month, people all over the world are asked to consider the commitment to improve building safety, resilience and economic investment at home and in the community, and to acknowledge the essential service provided to all of us by local and state building departments, fire prevention bureaus and federal agencies in protecting lives and property.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Erica Romo Woods, Mayor of the City of Liberty, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2024 as Building Safety Month, this date noted the _____day of _____, 2024. Accordingly, I encourage our citizens to join us as we participate in Building Safety Month activities.

If you have questions about the forms or the due dates shown, you can call us at the phone number or write to us at the address shown at the top of this notice. If you need help in determining your annual accounting period (tax year), see Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods.

We assigned you a tax classification (corporation, partnership, estate, trust, EPMF, etc.) based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification, and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination of your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2020-1, 2020-1 I.R.B. 1 (or superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue). Note: Certain tax classification elections can be requested by filing Form 8832, Entity Classification Election. See Form 8832 and its instructions for additional information.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and does not need to file Form 8832.

ARTICLE VII – RIGHTS, POWER, AND AUTHORITY OF THE MEMBERS

- 7.1 Management by the Member(s). The Members shall have the full and exclusive right, power, and authority to manage the affairs of the Company and to bind the Company, to make all decisions with respect thereto, and to do or cause to be done any and all acts or things deemed by the Members to be necessary, appropriate, or desirable to carry out or further the business of the Company. If there is more than one Member, all decisions and actions of the Members, except as otherwise specified in this Agreement, shall be made by Majority Interest Vote of the Members, whether acting at a meeting or by written consent. Specifically:

- (a) Any legally binding agreement must have a Majority Interest Vote of the Members.

- (b) Any decision that involves a lease, an acquisition of another company, hiring of employees or subcontractors, acquisition or sale of physical assets, a contract for goods and/or services must have a Majority Interest Vote of the Members.
- (c) Any decision that involves a loan to the Company or the pledging of Company assets as collateral must have a Unanimous Interest Vote of the Members.
- (d) Any decision that involves the settlement of litigation to which the Company is a party or confession of judgment by the Company must have a Unanimous Interest Vote of the Members.
- (e) If a Member disagrees with a decision or proposed decision, such Member may call a vote to decide the course of action. If any Member calls a vote, a Majority Interest Vote, or such higher voting threshold as specified in this Agreement, must be completed to take an action on behalf of the Company, and such vote must be in writing.

7.2 Member's Right to Information. Each Member shall have reasonable access to the Company's records at the Company's principal place of business. The right to access provides the opportunity to inspect and copy records during ordinary business hours. The Company will impose a reasonable charge, limited to the costs of labor and material, for copies of such records furnished.

7.3 Partition Right. No Member will have the right to require partition of the Company property or to compel any sale of the Company's assets or any sale of a deceased Member's interest in the Company's assets without a written Majority Interest Vote in favor of such action, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary.

7.4 Mediation. If a dispute among the Members arises out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, the Members agree to negotiate in good faith among themselves to resolve the dispute. The Members also agree to engage the Company's accounting, legal and other professional advisors if doing so will assist in resolving the dispute. If the Members cannot settle the dispute through negotiation and before invoking the deadlock resolution provision in Section 7.5, the Members agree to attempt to resolve the dispute through voluntary participation in mediation administered (i) if the Members mutually agree, by such disinterested and competent person as the Members shall select or (ii) in the absence of mutual agreement on choice of a mediator, pursuant to the commercial mediation rules of the American Arbitration Association. Fees applicable to the administration of the mediation and the mediator's fee shall be paid equally by all Members.

7.5 Deadlock Resolution Provision. If the Members (i) either hold equal membership interests in the Company, (ii) remain divided on a material issue following negotiation and mediation as provided above, and (iii) cannot otherwise mutually agree on the conduct of the business and affairs of the Company, a deadlock between the Members shall be deemed to have occurred. Upon the occurrence of a deadlock, one Member (hereinafter referred to as the "Offeror") may elect to purchase the membership interest in the Company of the other Member (hereinafter referred to as the "Offeree") at a price which the Offeror believes to be the fair market value of the Offeree's membership interest in the Company. The Offeror shall notify the Offeree in writing of the offer to purchase, stating the total purchase price for the Offeree's membership interest in and the terms of such purchase. At the Offeree's option, the Offeree shall have the right to either (i) buy the Offeror's membership interest in the Company at the price and on the terms contained in the Offeror's offer or (ii) to sell the Offeree's interest to the Offeror at the designated price and terms. The offer, when made by the Offeror, is irrevocable for thirty (30) days. The Offeree shall have ten (10) days from the receipt of such offer to make its election, that is, either to buy such interest of the Offeror or to sell its own interest, notice of which shall be made in writing executed by the Offeree and stating the nature of the election. A Member which is obligated to purchase the interest of another Member pursuant to the provisions hereof shall have twenty (20) days from the date of receipt of the written election from such other Member to pay the designated price and satisfy the terms of such purchase. Should the Member who has received an offer to sell or buy fail to make the election required herein in a timely fashion, then such non-responding party shall be deemed to have elected and agreed to sell or buy, as the case may be, according to the terms of the offer.

- 7.6 Right to sign on behalf of the Company. Abundant Estate Holdings LLC is represented by Casey J. Munro. DCC Holdings, LLC is represented by Dave Costello. Both Casey J. Munro and Dave Costello have the right and authority to sign agreements on behalf of Your Choice Home Buyers, LLC and bind the company thereby.

ARTICLE VIII – DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

ARTICLE IX – BOOKS AND RECORDS

- 9.1 Books and Records. The Members shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal place of business of the Company true and correct books of account, in which every transaction of the Company shall be entered fully and accurately. The Company's taxable and fiscal years shall be the calendar year.
- 9.2 Initial Principal Office. The initial principal place of business at which the Company's books and records shall be maintained shall be 141 Traction Street, Unit 57 Greenville, SC 29611 or such other address as the Members may, from time to time, elect.

ARTICLE X – LIMITATION OF LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION

- 10.1 Limited Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Act, the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Company, and the Members shall not be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation, or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Member. The failure of the Company to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under this Operating Agreement or the Act shall not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the Members for any debts, liabilities, or obligations of the Company. Except as otherwise expressly required by law, the Members, in such Member's capacity as such, shall have no liability in excess of: (a) the amount of such Member's net Capital Contributions; (b) such Member's share of any assets and undistributed profits of the Company; and (c) the amount of any distributions required to be returned pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 33-44-407.
- 10.2 Indemnification. The Company (including any receiver or trustee of the Company) shall, to the fullest extent provided or allowed by law, indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the Members and each of the Member's agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns (each, an "Indemnified Party") from, against, and with respect to any and all liability, loss, damage, and expense incurred or sustained by the Indemnified Party in connection with the business of the Company or by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed in connection with the activities of the Company or in dealing with third parties on behalf of the Company, including costs and attorneys' fees before and at trial and at all appellate levels, whether or not suit is instituted (which attorneys' fees may be paid as incurred), and any amounts expended in the settlement of any claims of liability, loss or damage, provided that the act or omission of the Indemnified Party does not constitute fraud or willful misconduct by such Indemnified Party. The Company shall not pay for any insurance covering liability of the Members or the Members' agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, or successors and assigns, for actions or omissions for which indemnification is not permitted hereunder; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall preclude the Company from purchasing and paying for such types of insurance, including extended coverage liability and casualty and workers' compensation, as would be customary for any Person owning, managing and/or operating comparable property and engaged in a similar business or from naming the Members and any of the Members' agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors or assigns or any Indemnified Party as additional insured parties thereunder.

- 10.3 Non-Exclusive Right. The provisions of this Article X shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights of indemnification and reimbursement or limitations of liability to which an Indemnified Party may be entitled under the Act, common law, or otherwise. Notwithstanding any repeal of this Article X or other amendment hereof, its provisions shall be binding upon the Company (subject only to the exceptions above set forth) as to any claim, loss, expense, liability, action, or damage due to or arising out of matters which occur during or relate to the period prior to any such repeal or amendment of this Article X.

ARTICLE XI – COMPENSATION

- 11.1 Member Management Fee. Any Member rendering services to the Company shall be entitled to compensation commensurate with the value of such services if a Majority Interest Vote of Members agree.
- 11.2 Reimbursement. The Company shall reimburse the Members for all direct out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in managing the Company if a Majority Interest Vote of Members agree.

ARTICLE XII – BOOKKEEPING

- 12.1 Books. The Members shall maintain complete and accurate books of account of the Company's affairs at the Company's principal place of business or other agreed location. Such books shall be kept on such method of accounting as the Members shall select. The Company's accounting period shall be the calendar year.
- 12.2 Member's Accounts. The Members shall maintain separate capital and distribution accounts for each Member. Each Member's capital account shall be determined and maintained in the manner set forth in Treasury Regulation 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) and shall consist of his or her initial capital contribution:
- (a) increased by any additional capital contribution made by the Member;

- (b) increased by credit balances transferred from his or her distribution account to his or her capital account;
- (c) decreased by distributions to him or her in reduction of Company capital; and
- (d) decreased by the Member's share of Company losses if charged to his or her capital account.

12.3 Reports. The Members shall close the books of account after the close of each calendar year, and shall prepare and send to each Member a statement of such Member's distributive share of income and expense for income tax reporting purposes.

ARTICLE XIII – TRANSFER

13.1 Valuation. The value of the Company shall be the fair market value of the Company as of the date of acceptance of offer of sale.

13.2 Proper Dissociation vs. Improper Dissociation. Member dissociations will be deemed Proper or Improper as follows:

(a) A “Proper Dissociation” is when a Member dissociates from the Company:

- (1) because of his or her own death,
- (2) because of his or her own permanent disability which prevents him or her from carrying out his or her duties with respect to the Company, or
- (3) in the event his or her dissociation is otherwise deemed proper by a Majority Interest Vote of the remaining Members.

(b) An “Improper Dissociation” is any dissociation that is not a Proper Dissociation, as defined above.

(1) In the event of Improper Dissociation, the value of such exiting Member's interest in the company, after being determined according to the procedures herein, shall be discounted by 25%. The Members agree this discount reflects the amount by which the value of the Company will be reduced by an Improper Dissociation.

(2) If a Member Improperly Dissociates, within 30 days of the remaining Members receiving notice of such dissociation, the remaining Members may, by a Majority Interest Vote, elect to require the Improperly Dissociating Member to sell his or her interest in the Company to the remaining Members or to the Company. If the remaining Members invoke this right, the value of the exiting Member's interest in the Company shall be determined in accordance with section 13.4 of this Agreement, as if the exiting Member had no buyer for his or her interest.

13.3 Assignment. If at any time a Member proposes to sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of any or all of his or her interest in the Company, the Member shall comply with the following procedures:

(a) First, make a written offer to sell such interest at a stated price to the other Member(s).

At this point, the exiting Member may not make this intention publicly known. If the other Members decline or fail to elect the right to buy such interest within sixty (60) days, the exiting Member shall make a written offer to sell such interest to the Company. If the Company declines or fails to elect the right to buy such interest within sixty (60) days, the exiting Member may advertise its membership interest for sale as such Member sees fit.

(b) If after complying with 13.3(a), Member has a buyer for Member's interest, the other Members and/or the Company has the first right of refusal to purchase the exiting Member's interest for the agreed price. If there is more than one remaining Member, remaining Members may combine funds to purchase the exiting Member's interest. The remaining Members and/or Company have thirty (30) days to exercise such right of first refusal. The exiting Member must show that the potential purchaser has full certified funds or the ability to get full certified funds before the first right of refusal period starts.

(c) Pursuant to applicable law, the remaining Members (not including the exiting Member or the purchaser of the exiting Member's interest), may approve, by a Majority Interest Vote, the sale of the exiting Member's interest such that the purchaser is granted full Membership rights to participate in the management and affairs of the Company, including voting rights. If the remaining Members do not so vote to approve such sale, then the purchaser shall only have the right to receive the share of distributions his or her purchased interest entitles him or her to, and he or she shall have no right to participate in the management or affairs of the Company. The exiting Member must disclose to the purchaser if the remaining Members will not approve the sale.

13.4 Valuation of Exiting Member's Interest. If a Member wants to exit the Company and does not have a buyer of such Member's interest or if the exiting Member is or has dissociated from the Company Improperly and the remaining Members have elected, pursuant to their rights in Section 13.2(b)(2), to require him or her to sell his or her interest in the Company to the remaining Members or to the Company, the exiting Member will assign his or her interest to the remaining Members or the Company according to the following procedures:

- (a) A value must be placed on the interest before it is assigned.
- (b) If the exiting Member and the remaining Members do not agree on the value of that interest, the exiting Member must pay for a certified appraiser to appraise the Company value and the exiting Member's interest will be assigned a value according to the exiting Member's interest percentage.
- (c) The remaining Members must approve the certified appraiser used by the exiting Member. Remaining Members have thirty (30) days to approve the exiting Member's certified appraiser. If the remaining Members disapprove of the certified appraiser, they must show evidence demonstrating a reasonable basis for such disapproval. Remaining Members may not stall the appraisal process by disapproving all certified appraisers.
- (d) If remaining Members disagree with the value placed on the exiting Member's interest, remaining Members must pay for a certified appraiser to appraise the Company value. Such appraisal must be completed within thirty (30) days of the completion of the exiting Member's appraisal. Upon completion of remaining Members' appraisal, the exiting Member must approve such appraisal within thirty (30) days.
- (e) If the exiting Member does not approve the remaining Members' appraisal, the value of the Company will be determined by adding both parties' values and then dividing the sum in half.
- (f) Whether a Member dissociates Properly or Improperly, such Member shall be liable to the Company and to the remaining Members for all amounts payable by the exiting Member under the Operating Agreement.

(g) If the exiting Member is Improperly Dissociating, the value of his or her interest will be discounted by twenty-five percent (25%), as agreed herein.

13.5 Distribution of the Exiting Member's Interest. Upon determination of the value of the exiting member's interest and, if such exiting member is engaging in an Improper Dissociation, after application of the above-described discount, the value will be a debt of the Company. Whether the Member's dissociation is Proper or Improper, as defined above, the Company may offset the value of the exiting Member's interest with any amounts payable by the exiting Member under the Operating Agreement. If the Member is dissociating Improperly, as defined above, such Improperly Dissociating Member, in addition to accepting the discount agreed upon in 13.2 above, shall also be liable to the Company and to the other Members for all costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), and damages caused by the Improper Dissociation. The Company may offset the value of such Improperly Dissociating Member's interest with all such costs, expenses, and damages. The value of his or her interest so offset and/or discounted, the exiting Member may demand payment either at the dissolution of the Company or by the following method:

(a) Total amount due to the exiting Member shall be paid in five (5) equal, annual installments over a five (5) year period, with interest payable according to the Internal Revenue Service Applicable Federal Rate (AFR) Rulings as of the month preceding the closing date of the sale of the exiting Member's share. The AFR applicable to the entire five (5)-year payment term shall be the mid-term AFR, with the annual period for compounding, as stated in the IRS AFR Ruling as of the month preceding the closing date of the sale of the exiting Member's share. The first payment shall be due one (1) year from the closing date of the sale of the exiting Member's share of the Company, with the accrued annual interest as calculated by the Applicable Federal Rate (AFR), as defined above.

(b) If the Company dissolves, the exiting Member will be a regular creditor and payment will follow normal LLC dissolution payment statutes.

(c) The Company may prepay any amount owed to an exiting Member earlier than this Agreement requires.
